1. Mayor Brison called the special meeting to order at 7:10 p.m.
2. Mayor Brison called the special meeting to stand in recess at 7:11 p.m.
3. Mayor Brison called the workshop to order at 7:11 p.m.
4. Topics of Discussion –
 - (1) Horn Tavern Springs Historical Marker
 - (2) Discuss and make recommendation to split the Triangle School property into two sections. The new plat would show the new Deer Ridge Road relocation, the area to be designated as the Fairview Historical Park and the area designated as the future Fairview Fire Hall site.
 - (3) Discuss and make recommendation to declare the Triangle School property as part of our Fairview Parks Department.
 - (4) Discuss and make recommendation to relocate the Jingo Post Office to the Triangle School property as opposed to the Fairview Nature Park (the board currently has approved the post office be relocated to Fairview Nature Park, this motion should be rescinded and a new motion made at the August 3rd Board of Commissioners meeting to relocate it to the Triangle School parcel if recommended).
 - (5) Establish a Historical Board or if the Triangle School parcel is made apart of the Fairview Parks Department then would the Fairview Park Board take on the challenge.

- (6) Have someone who is an expert on historical restoration to evaluate the Triangle School and give us a report on its restorable condition.
 - (7) Discuss Jingo Post Office restoration plan (restore to its current look or to its original look).
 - (8) Discuss and make recommendation to move the $20,000 of un-committed funds into a Fairview Restoration and Historical Fund).
 - (9) Discuss Historical Markers (one sided or two sided markers/locations).
 - (10) Discuss and make recommendation of Jingo Post Office marker wording.
5. Items for August 3rd Agenda –
- (1) Final Location of the Jingo Post Office
 - (2) Appropriating monies for Historical Makers and Renovations
 - (3) Discuss/Forming a Historical Preservation Committee
6. Mayor Brison closed the workshop at 8:05 p.m.
7. Mayor Brison called the special meeting back to order at 8:05 p.m.
8. The special meeting adjourned at 8:06 p.m.
